A Key to So Much of Coover's Writing

By John Foley

This is a small book with one essential Robert Coover story, "Beginnings," which is a key to all of Coover's fiction. If you like Coover's fiction, this story, and this book, are musts.

May I add that the seller from whom I ordered this book, Mike Armens, gave great service and the book arrived, in excellent shape, much sooner than expected -- within 3-4 days, if I remember correctly. This copy -- like all copies -- is signed by Robert Coover and numbered (only 250 copies were published). At first I thought the signature and number missing; but Mr. Armens pointed out that, unlike most signed and numbered books, on "In Bed One Night and Other Brief Encounters" signature and number appear on the last page before the blank flyleaves, not on the title page.

So the book is essential Coover and Mr. Armens' service has been 5-star stellar!
