A noble translation attempt

By Amazon Customer

I am not a French speaker, but studied the language for many years. We have a French au pair for our toddlers who love the original. It's not an easy book to translate but I think this is an excellent translation. The words make sense with the pictures. And to address the size issue, you can have your children look at the original book in English while reading it in French.

Too small!

By MT

Please note you can get a full size hardcover edition for LESS money.

This paperback "pocket" edition is TINY.

great translation, too small for 1 year olds

By Claire's mom

This is a great translation - they really translated the spirit of Dr. Seuss. There's a good rhythm, lots of rhymes and word play, etc. I grew up with Dr. Seuss in English and this translation feels like Seuss to me. I've seen another version of Chat Chapeaute that translates the original literally and it is terrible! Completely misses the point of Dr. Seuss.

My only complaint is that this book is paperback and it is small - difficult for my nearly 2 year old to hold while I read. The only big hardback version of Chat Chapeaute I have found was the literal translation version which I don't think is worth buying at any price, so we'll have to get by with this.
