Beats Zondervan's "Strongest Strong's" by a mile!

By Freedom Slave

Ok. I thought I had the "Strongest" concordance, but when I picked this one up and looked at it, I realized that I had fallen prey to a marketeer's clever play on words. Nelson's New Strong's Expanded Exhaustive Concordance blow's Zondervan's out of the water. The substantially expanded Greek and Hebrew dictionary definitions alone make this volume indispensable to any student of God's Word who owns a KJV. Like the "Strongest", it has all of the nice extras like a complete topical index of the Scriptures, and convenient alphabetical page markings. It is about twice as thick as Zondervan's concordance, partly because of the 600+ pages of Greek and Hebrew dictionaries(Compared to about 200 in the competitor's volume.), and partly because the print is larger (and WAY clearer and easier to read) than Zondervan's. The only thing "stronger" about the competitor's book is a better quality binding. This one isn't bad by any stretch, but Zondervan's lay-flat Smythe sewn binding is definitely better. That being said, I'm planning on giving my other concordance to my brother. This one's a keeper!

The Power of Strong's with the Insight of Vine

By G. Maxwell

Finally, a Strong's concordance with the insight of Vine's dictionary.

Strong's has long been recognized as THE concordance for the KJV. One of the most critical and highly criticized area of Strong's is the Greek and Hebrew dictionaries. Some have felt that these dictionaries can sometimes lead the reader to a false conclusion that these definitions are the only meaning to the words defined.

Now with Vine's insights added to many of the Words, this complaint is lessened. Even before this edition of Strong's, many got by with the definitions that were found in the dictionaries.

Now with the insights of Vine's dictionary, these definitions are more accurate and should give one added information and better clarification for many words found in the Bible.

Highly recommended.

Wonderful

By Patricia L. Menville

I bought this for my son who is in prison. You might think this is a bad thing, but God has given my son a ministry from the inside out. When God is finished with him he will come out. He has led 10 men to Christ so far. He said it was the best concordance and it has helped him to bring the light to the Gospel in a greater way.
