Sister Faustina Kowalska, the Polish nun who had mystical encounters with the merciful Christ in the early 20th century, was canonized a saint by Pope John Paul II. The Pope also declared the first Sunday after Easter to be Divine Mercy Sunday, and it was during the vigil Mass of this feast that the Holy Father received his last Holy Communion and drew his last breath.

The message of Divine Mercy as communicated through Sister Faustina is both a starting point and a recurring theme for Cardinal Schoenborn's discussion of God's merciful love. The Archbishop of Vienna explores the presence of God's great mercy in the Scriptures, Tradition, the life of Christ, and the sacraments and works of the Church, while raising important questions along the way, such as, "What is the relationship between mercy and justice?"

"Mercy is the central nucleus of the Gospel message. In our time humanity needs a strong proclamation and witness of God's mercy... Go forth and be witnesses of God's mercy, a source of hope for every person and for the whole world."

--Pope Benedict XVI

We Have Found Mercy: The Mystery of God 's Merciful Love

By Ann

Cardinal Schoenborn writes poetically with perfect fidelity to Catholic doctrine. In a world that is so darkened with relativism, this writing proclaims Gods Divine Mercy. This is an essential read for US citizens often darkened by "The Culture of Death." All Catholics will enjoy this book..

The Core of God's love

By James J. Fish

Cardinal Schonborn captures the essence of the identity of God in this brief yet important work. The heart of God is his merciful love which God extends to all...an uplifting read.

Very Impressed

By Lethifold

I am very impressed by the spirituality of this book. It is perfectly contemporary while at the same time perfectly rooted in the past. It is biblical and doctrinal. The author is humble and resigned. Not every part is perfect, that is true. Some passages contain more quotes than original thought, but they are worthwhile quotes nonetheless. I would recommend it to someone, especially if they are not too religious or not very familiar with Christianity.
